The Lincoln Essay Contest

Essaya by school children upon the life of Abraham Lincoln, written for the contest announced by The Press, should be received in the office of the Press today. However, in view of the delay to the mails caused by the storm mails caused by the storm any shown by postoffice cancellations of stamps to have been malled in time to reach here today in the regular service, will be included in the contest. It is not likely the result can be announced for ten days, as the judges will each consider the essays independently of the oth-ers, not knowing how the others have ranked them
